

When a heterosexual person judges other types of relationships wrong or abnormal?		When people or groups of people are treated differently in comparison to others?
-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--

Types of abuse		Is based on the differences in the work they do and the money they earn?		Giving someone the ability to do something for themselves?

The difference between people?		The cause of discriminatory practice due to uniformed attitudes and beliefs
--------------------------------	--	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------	--

they ensure that service users receive the appropriate care and treatment		They ensure vulnerable service users can express their views		What is usually shown in people's attitudes to others and is harder to prove?
---------------------------------------------------------------------------	--	--------------------------------------------------------------	--	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--

If someone is rude, hostile or offensive to someone because they are different?		When service users are given choice these are upheld
---------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--	------------------------------------------------------	--

Is the assumption that young adults are more capable than the old?		When men have more rights than women?		A system where everyone has the same chance to obtain or achieve something?
--------------------------------------------------------------------	--	---------------------------------------	--	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------	--

Maintaining a service users rights to keep information secure		What is the assumption that certain nationalities behave in a certain way?
---------------------------------------------------------------	--	----------------------------------------------------------------------------	--